Abstract	In this study, you will be asked to listen to Mandarin Chinese sentences while looking at pictures on a screen, and answer some comprehension questions.
Description	【Mandarin Chinese speakers wanted】 Eye-tracking study [1.5Credit (or £10 for non-psychology students), 60+min] This study examines how Chinese sentences are processed by native Mandarin speakers. The participant needs to be a native Mandarin speaker (Mainland China Mandarin), does not speak another language natively and has no dialects spoken more than Mandarin. The participant also needs to have normal or corrected-to-normal vision and normal hearing. Please do not participant in this study if you have a history of neurological/psychological

	disorders. The main experiment will record your eye-movements towards pictures on a computer screen while you listen to sentences. The entire experiment will be about 1 hour (or a few minutes more). The experiment will take place in person in Chandler House, 2 Wakefield Street, WC1N 1PF. Please meet the experimenter at the reception. The building is very close to the Brunswick shopping centre. Directions and a map can be found here: http://www.ucl.ac.uk/maps/chandler-house. Please do not wear eye make-up (especially eye liner and mascara) on the day of the study. Or you can remove your eye make-up before the experiment. It is ok to wear contact lenses or glasses. If you wear both regular glasses and contact lenses on a daily basis, please wear contact lenses on the day of the experiment. However, please do NOT wear coloured contact lenses. Any questions, please email yiling.huo.18@ucl.ac.uk.
Preparation	Remove your eye-makeup before experiment. Please remember to wear your glasses or contact lenses if needed. Please DO NOT wear coloured contact lenses.
